

Keep lying and no one will believe you!

By Amari

One early morning, the lying mouse shouted as loud as he could that an immense cat was about to eat him. The other mice came running down the hole. The lying mouse said to them while laughing “You got tricked! They were so angry at him, they nearly hurt him.

24 hours later, He lied once again and made his crew come rushing down the stinky, disgusting hole. One of his crew members were so angry he started shouting at him as loud as a lion’s ROAR, while the other mice were staring at him with an ominous look on their slimy face.

A few weeks later, a real vicious, fierce cat came in and tried to eat him while he’s still breathing. He said as scared as an ant, “A cat is about to swallow me whole!” The other mice did not believe him so they came towards him as slow as a tortoise but suddenly they stopped and smelled something so delicious. They followed the smell and finally they found the lovely cheddar cheese! They kept eating it and eating it in till them all got full up. It took them a good 10 minutes to finish. Slowly, they got up and started to go look for the lying mouse. “Finally,” the mice said “We made it.” They went through the hole and saw the vicious, fierce cat. They rubbed their eyes gently to see if the cat was still there and guess what, it was!

They quickly ran as fast as a cheetah to go help their friends. They started attacking the cat and holding his feet to make him fall down on the ruff, dull ground. As the lying mouse went to bed, he learnt his lesson to never lie again.
