

The popular plan

By Caitlyn

Once there were two friends and their names were Mia and Harmony. They had a friendship like no other. They were out of the ordinary. Each day, their friendship grew stronger. Most weekends they would have sleepovers and in that sleepover they would have midnight snacks and stay up till late. But they were unpopular and no one talked to them and they would get teased for not having the latest stuff, but during that time they had each other. Then all that change on Friday 7th February 2018, when the popular crowd and Mia started talking and set a plan to see if Harmony would betray her for the popular crowd. The plan was that the popular crowd would ask Harmony to leave Mia and join them. Then it was time to put the plan in action.

When the popular crowd asked Harmony to leave Mia straight away she said “yes I will join you”. Once Harmony took the deal she was not allowed to speak or be around Mia. The next day, Harmony felt bad that she had been saying despicable, unimaginable things about Mia behind her back.

The same day, Harmony told Mia that she and the popular crowd were talking about Mia. Mia replied and said that she had known all along because she and the popular crowd had set it up to see if she was as loyal as she seemed. The two girl’s friendship came to an end and they went separate ways from there.

Five days later, Mia became popular for setting up Harmony to see if she could trust her and Harmony became popular but for the wrong reason. Harmony was left with no friends and no one to talk to.

Moral

The moral of this story is don’t talk about people behind their back because they will find out .also don’t leave your friends just to be popular because it’s not worth it.
