People had to cover their windows with newspapers and turn their lights off so the Germans would think nobody was home. They also had to send their children to the countryside so they wouldn't get hurt, it was very hard for them to get up everyday to people dying and they didn't even know if they would wake up from their sleep.

BOMBS

Night after night, from September 1940 until May 1941, German bombers attacked British cities, ports and industrial areas. London was bombed everyday and night, bar one, for 11 weeks. One third of London was destroyed. The German planes flew over to the UK in big groups.
