

WORLD WAR II

Buckingham Palace

During the Blitz, Buckingham Palace was struck. The palace forecourt, inner quadrangle were all marred by high explosives and delayed- action bombs.

Despite this, the targeting of Buckingham Palace resulted in only partial success: physical damage was limited and there were no mass casualties.

Nazi

Nazi were German and were a group a bad people. Their flag is a red background with a white circle in the middle and two zigzags. If you turn those two zigzags the other way it would be the sign of peace in Hinduism.

under the leadership of Adolf Hitler (1889-1945) the National Socialist German worker' party or Nazi party, grew into a mass movement and ruled Germany though totalitarian means from 1933 to 1945 the Irish in the British armed forces refers to the history of Irish people serving in the armed forces,(including the Royal Navy, The Royal air force and other elements.

Soldiers

Ireland was the part of the United Kingdom from 1800-1922 and during this time in particular many Irishmen fought in the British Army.

people

in world war two people had to cover
there windows with newspaper or something opaque
they also had to switch off all the lights so Germans doesn't know were we are.

Children had to go sent on a train to go to the country side so they were safe.
